Woodlands Bank Welcomes New Mortgage Loan Officer/Sales Manager

Williamsport, PA – Woodlands Bank is proud to announce and welcome Wanda Marie Fortin to their Mortgage Lending team.

Throughout her 40 years in the industry, Fortin has helped thousands of clients finance the purchase of new homes, construction projects, and refinancing opportunities. Her extensive knowledge and commitment to top-notch customer service supports Woodlands Bank’s mission of helping individuals and families achieve their financial goals.

“I’m happy to join Woodlands Bank because they are a strong local community bank that prioritizes personal service. I look forward to servicing our customers mortgage needs,” said Fortin.

Fortin will be leading the Mortgage Lending team to continue providing customers with exceptional service and products that best suit them. Her client-focused approach will help guide borrowers through each step of the lending process from application to closing with ease.

“Woodlands Bank couldn’t be more excited about introducing our newest employee, Wanda Fortin. Wanda’s name is well known in the market and has become synonymous with a high standard of customer service which includes using her extensive knowledge of products to find the right one to meet the customer’s need and situation. Wanda’s addition to the Woodlands Bank Retail and Mortgage Lending Department will be a critical part in elevating the department’s performance and its overall profile in our markets. Welcome, Wanda, to the Woodlands Family,” said Jon Conklin, President and CEO of Woodlands Bank.

Woodlands Bank continues to expand its mortgage services to help individuals and families navigate the home financing process with confidence. Headquartered in Williamsport, PA, the bank is committed to strengthening the communities it serves through local investment and personalized banking solutions.
