Woodlands Bank Welcomes New Mortgage Loan Officer

Williamsport, PA – Woodlands Bank is proud to announce and welcome Kimberly Ann Walker to their Mortgage Lending team.

Walker began her community banking career as a Teller. Holding various titles through her 40 years in banking, she brings valuable insight that helps her clients on a path to success.

As a lifelong resident of the Jersey Shore area, Walker is proud to serve the community she calls home. She is dedicated to guiding customers through a wide range of financial needs, whether they are purchasing their first home, building a dream home, refinancing, or investing, Walker's personalized, customer-minded approach allows her to build lasting relationships and provide solutions tailored to each individual's goals.

"I truly appreciate the opportunity to work for a community bank who values relationships and customer service in our rural community," said Walker.

Working alongside the Mortgage team, Walker will continue Woodlands Bank's tradition of delivering expert guidance and personalized service to every customer.

"We are so excited about Kim's addition to the Woodlands team. She brings a wealth of knowledge, specifically about the mortgage product, and is well known in the Jersey Shore market and beyond. This knowledge and familiarity will allow our customers to be able to have full faith and confidence that Kim will find them the mortgage solution that best fits their individual situation. Kim's passion for serving her community could not be a more perfect match for our unique brand of community banking," said Jon Conklin, President and CEO of Woodlands Bank.

Woodlands Bank continues to expand its mortgage services to help individuals and families navigate the home financing process with confidence. Headquartered in Williamsport, PA, the bank is committed to strengthening the communities it serves through local investment and personalized banking solutions. With offices in Lycoming and Clinton Counties, the bank provides consumer, commercial, and trust services to help individuals and businesses grow and succeed.
